Attitudes of staff towards quality assurance.
Rajamangala University of Technology, Suvarnabhumi

Phatcharanan Wongsing\textsuperscript{1}, Siriporn Ruangsurat\textsuperscript{2}, Seksan Kongphungsab\textsuperscript{3} and Suwasan Kamol\textsuperscript{4}

\textsuperscript{1}Rajamangala University of Technology, Suvarnabhumi
*Phatcharanan Wongsing: sujira2003@hotmail.com, Tel: 0818527234, Fax: 035-709105

ABSTRACT

This research has important objectives for the study of attitude of personnel to the quality education of Rajamangala University of Technology, Suvarnabhumi. Groups, for example in research personnel and academic staff at the Agency's support. Tool used to gather information in a query The statistics used in the data analysis is the standard deviation of the average percent. To test the differences by using t-test and F-test, which is effect, research has found that the attitude of personnel, Rajamangala University of Technology, Suvarnabhumi is the quality education plan and operational the check and the improvement in the picture is included in most levels have found that the personal factor is the different age levels, male and female education. Technical support to the health units and centres affiliated with the different areas of attitude of personnel quality education of universities do not vary. Statistically significant at the 0.05 level, when you consider that all sides-attitude the difference.

To the implementation of an effective quality assurance. Rajamangala University of Technology Suvarnabhumi should review the process-system for quality assurance at all levels of the agencies at university and there are a channel for provide information to staff of Departments. The attitude should be a good positive quality education. And the participation of the people. Which will result in a continuous operation.

Keywords: Attitude  Quality assurance  Quality assurance of education.